West Pennant Hills Public School is situated in beautifully landscaped grounds on Church St near Thompson’s Corner, in the north-western Sydney suburb of West Pennant Hills.

West Pennant Hills Public School was established in 1850 and enjoys a strong history within modern facilities, where students can access state of the art equipment provided by the NSW Department of Education and Community and also through the efforts of an active parent community.

Our experienced and dedicated staff work together to meet the needs of every student, providing a balance of academic, cultural, sporting, social and leadership programs in a supportive and caring learning environment.
