GOVERNOR PHILIP KING PUBLIC SCHOOL
SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA

Governor Philip King Public School is located in south-western Sydney. Governor Philip King Public School offers a broad, well-balanced, quality education for all students. Our programs emphasise tolerance, respect and understanding. The school motto ‘striving for personal excellence’ encompasses all areas of school life and is reflected in the wide variety of opportunities our students have access to. Our students have a demonstrated commitment to high standards in all areas, including academic, citizenship, student leadership, sports and the arts.

English as a second language (ESL)
Specialist ESL teachers.

Student support services
Learning support team • Reading Recovery program • Playground play program • School counsellor • Student welfare policy • Specialist learning and support teachers (LaST) • Safe, Respectful, Learners program (SRL)

Languages taught
Five specialist community languages teachers • All students from Kindergarten through to Year 6 have the opportunity to learn Arabic, Assyrian, Chinese, Italian or Vietnamese

Special programs and facilities
Extensive grounds and play areas • Air-conditioned classrooms • Interactive whiteboards in each room • Public speaking and debating • Choir • Dance groups • Drama • Vast array of sports offered • Reading lab • Gardening • School newspaper • School Parliament for students • Active After School Challenge (AASC) • Computers in every classroom • Two computer labs • Well-resourced library

Local area features
Edensor Park is a suburb of Sydney and is located approximately 31 kilometres south-west of the Sydney central business district. The school is located close to local shopping centres and is serviced by public transport.