Chatswood High School has an outstanding tradition of academic excellence within a caring and supportive environment. The school offers academically challenging extension courses in English, mathematics, history and music and attracts students of high academic potential into the selective and comprehensive streams.

English as a special language

Intensive English Centre (IEC) on site • Intensive English instruction with specialist ESL teachers • Specialist English language courses to HSC level • Lunchtime assistance for students

Student support services

Adviser attached to each year group supporting student welfare.

Languages taught

French • Mandarin • Japanese

Special programs

Gifted and talented student programs • Band and multimedia programs • Enrichment programs such as Tournament of the Minds, Stock Exchange game, Mock Trial • A range of cultural experiences for international students • Student leadership opportunities • Musical excellence including the internationally acclaimed Chatswood High School Wind Ensemble, Concert and Stage Bands, a string group, choir, guitar group • School musical and drama productions • A wide range of sports

Special facilities

The ‘Sound House’ digital facility for sound, film and animation technology.

---

PRINCIPAL

Ms Sue Low

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT COORDINATOR

Ms Stephanie Bohdan
Ms Jeanette Polley

ADDRESS

24 Centennial Avenue
Chatswood NSW 2067

---

WEBSITE

www.chatswoodhighschool.com

ESTABLISHED

1959

SCHOOL MOTTO

Inspiring Excellence – Achieving Success

SCHOOL POPULATION

1288

---

Academic achievements 2012 HSC results

Two students in All Rounders, one Top Achiever and 137 Distinguished Achievers (Band 6) • Top ATAR – two students with 99.60

Local area features

Chatswood High School is located on the lower north shore of Sydney and is within three minutes walking time from Chatswood Railway Station and major bus routes linking Chatswood with Sydney’s Central Business District. The school has a leafy outlook with Lane Cove National Park nearby.