Jiahua (David) Huang from the People's Republic of China completed his Higher School Certificate (HSC) in 2011 at Killarney Heights High School and received an Australian Tertiary Admission Rank (ATAR) of 99.4.

He was dux of his school, exceptional at his studies and a highly motivated student. He was first at Killarney Heights in Mathematics Extension 1 and 2, Chemistry and English as a Second Language (ESL). He was nominated by his School Principal for a DEC International Academic Achievement Award.

Speaking of his school experience, Jiahua said: “it was a welcoming environment. At first my English was not very good but the friendly teachers and students helped me a lot.”

From 2012, David is studying at the University of New South Wales - “I’m really excited to go into Medicine this year.”

Sydney is a great study destination for international students. It is one of the top five cities in the world for its high quality health system, innovation, transportation, lifestyle and sustainability (2011 Cities of Opportunity Report).

Published: 4 June 2012