SYDNEY INSTITUTE

SYDNEY INSTITUTE

Sydney Institute is one of Australia's largest, oldest and most respected government providers of vocational education and training. The Institute has seven colleges located in and around the city centre, close to Australia's famous tourist attractions — Sydney Harbour Bridge, the Opera House, Chinatown and Bondi Beach.

Sydney Institute is a great place to study and that's why each year more than 2,000 international students from over 65 countries study with us. However, the vast majority of our students are Australian — so our international students have lots of opportunities to make Australian friends.

Our teachers are all experts in their fields with many years of experience in the classroom and in industry.

We offer:

- » Colleges in the centre of Sydney and surrounding suburbs
- » Award winning teachers with years of industry and business experience
- » Modern training facilities such as design studios, commercial kitchens, simulated offices and more
- » TAFE NSW's largest English Language Centre (SITEC)
- » Libraries, cafes, child care and computer labs
- » Campuses close to public transport
- » A free job placement service to help you find work while you study and after you graduate

SYDNEY INSTITUTE COLLEGES

» Ultimo College is the most popular college for international students in New South Wales. It is in the centre of Sydney, close to shopping, sight-seeing and all public transport. It is next to University of Technology Sydney (UTS) and within walking distance to the University of Sydney.

Ultimo has the largest English Language Centre in TAFE NSW, called SITEC. SITEC English courses give students direct entry to TAFE.

Ultimo College offers a wide range of courses to international students including Accounting, Business, Hospitality, Cookery, Patisserie, Tourism, Engineering, Welfare and Hairdressing. Ultimo also offers one of the best Fashion Design courses in Australia and our graduates include international fashion designers, such as Akira Isogawa.

» Randwick College is located between the city and Bondi Beach, not far from the University of New South Wales. It is the only centre for Dental Technology in the state. Randwick also has a brand new studio for Screen Editing and excellent courses in Fitness, Business and Children's Services.

» Petersham College is in the inner west of Sydney, not far from the city centre and very close to the University of Sydney. Petersham has excellent Information Technology courses and is a CISCO Networking Academy. It is also a centre for Interpreting courses, Business, Accounting and Hairdressing.

- » St George College is located in the pleasant southern suburbs of Sydney, close to shops, restaurants and the international airport. St. George has excellent Business, Building, Tourism and Community Welfare courses. It is also an important centre for Graphic Design.
- » Design Centre Enmore is one of Australia's leading design institutions. It is close to the city centre and within walking distance from some of Sydney's liveliest areas. Design Centre Enmore offers a wide range of courses including Jewellery Design, Interior Design, Product Design, Graphic Design and Design for Live Production.
- » TONI&GUY Sydney International School of Hairdressing (Paddington) is a unique training environment where cutting-edge TONI&GUY hair styles and approaches are taught. Paddington is one of the most fashionable parts of Sydney, and is very close to the city centre.
- » Sutherland College has 2 campuses – Loftus and Gymea. These are in a beautiful area of Sydney in the southern part of the city, close to a national park and wonderful beaches. It is very easy to reach the centre of Sydney as train and bus services are close by. Sutherland has fantastic courses in Commercial Cookery, Hospitality, Children's Services, Sport and Fitness.

STUDENT PROFILE

"I like the attraction of an overseas experience and the most important reason why I chose Australia was the climate and relaxing atmosphere. Australians are very friendly.

I had already studied travel and tourism and wanted to continue in that area so I chose Events Management at Sydney Institute.

The best thing about studying here is the attention the teachers give international students. They are all experts and I am really learning the skills I need to work in Events Management.

After my course I would love to stay longer in Australia."

- Fabien Joly
France

Diploma of Events Management
